A Russian named Booze has landed in America to get rid of military service at home. American booze will see to it, however, that he gets laid out in proper fashion.

The Washington Post informs us that the Republican party regards Senator Spooner as a clean man. We suspend judgment till Gov. LaFollette's committee on mud hands in its report.

A Chicago woman is suing her husband for divorce on the allegation that he wears her hose. His only defence is that they wouldn't fit. If he had found a wad of money in his wife's stockings there would certainly be presumptive evidence that he had a fit.

In his anti-Parker speech in New York on Monday night Col. Bryan declared that "the money question is not the great issue in the campaign this year." This looks like a new idea coming unexpectedly from that source.

The Rev. Dwight Hillis says that in the next generation "it may be vulgar to be rich, vulgar to spend money." We always did regard money as "filthy lucre" and we will never be caught running all over the country with two or three million dollars in our pocket.

Col. Bryan says what the party needs is a man who will die for Democracy. We don't want to see any poor fellow dead but some ought to serve a long term in the penitentiary for counterfeiting Democracy and palming it off on unsuspecting people as the genuine stuff.

The increased cost of living has moved a strong army to the front and threatens a flank movement on the teachers during "the campaign of education." Unless Governor Aycock sends a strong relief column to supply the teachers with better salaries they can't be expected to remain very long on the firing line. Verbum sat sapienti.

If Roosevelt is in favor of granting independence to the Philippines when the people are prepared for the duties of citizenship, it is an acknowledgment that the islands are not what we bargained for. It also demonstrates the folly of a Republican administration in sacrificing treasure and thousands of valuable lives, when the only thing we get out of it is to act as teacher to a mongrel set who may never be educated up to the American idea of independence.

CUTTER SEMINOLE IN PORT.

United States Ship Arrived Yesterday to Take Up Permanent Station at Wilmington—Officers and Crew.

The United States Revenue Cutter "Seminole," which has been assigned to permanent duty at this station, arrived yesterday afternoon and is lying at the Custom House wharf. In a short time she will probably take up her Summer station at Southport. The "Seminole" is a splendid ship and was admired by many who passed along the wharf after her arrival yesterday. She resembles in many respects the "Algonquin," formerly on this station, but is a little smaller. Her hull is of steel, 188 feet long, 588 tons burthen, and was built in Baltimore in 1899. She was lately stationed at Boston, but left there May 21st, going to New York for an overhauling preparatory to coming to Wilmington. The "Seminole" left New York Tuesday and made the trip to Southport in the remarkable time of 30 hours, having anchored off the Cape Fear at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

The cutter is in command of Capt. D. P. Foley, who is most pleasantly remembered here as having been on the officers' staff of the "Colfax" six years ago. Capt. Foley is a son-in-law of Capt. Jno. F. Divine, Mrs. Foley and little son having been in Wilmington since early Spring visiting the family of Capt. Divine. Since leaving Wilmington in 1893 Capt. Foley has spent the greater portion of his time in the Pacific coast service. Besides Capt. Foley the ship is officered as follows: First Lieutenant and Executive Officer S. B. Winran; Second Lieutenant and Navigator H. D. Hinckley; Third Lieutenant and Ordinance Officer T. G. Crapster; Chief Engineer H. N. Wood; Assistant Engineer R. B. Adams. Lieut. Winram and Engineer Adams are also well known in Wilmington, Mr. Adams having been aboard the "Algonquin" while she was on this station.

The "Seminole" is equipped with three guns—a one-pounder and two six-pounders. There are 66 men aboard, all told.

TWAS GRETNA-GREEN

HONEYMOON IN NEW YORK.

Mr. James H. Cowan Weds Miss Katharine Elizabeth Mayo at Rectory of St. Thomas' Pro-Cathedral Yesterday Evening—Notes.

In a quiet church wedding, invested with just the least tinge of romance and attended by just a sufficient element of surprise as to make the announcement doubly interesting to their large circle of friends in Wilmington and elsewhere, Miss Katharine Elizabeth Mayo and Mr. James H. Cowan, popular young people of this city, were happily married according to the beautiful rites of the Catholic church at the rectory of St. Thomas' parish yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, the service having been spoken by the Rev. Father Christopher C. Dennen in his characteristic clear and impressive manner.

There were present to witness the happy nuptial event only the brother of the groom and a few of the most intimate friends of both the bride and groom, their parents not even having been informed that the wedding was to be celebrated so early—not that there was parental objection on either side, but that the young people could not resist the opportunity for the romance that suggested itself a few days ago when a contemplated trip of the groom to New York on theatrical business was being casually discussed by the two, their engagement for a wedding in September having been announced to those intimately concerned several weeks ago. The bride was charmingly attired in a travelling suit of brown cloth, while the groom wore the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Cowan repaired to the Front street station of the Atlantic Coast Line, where they left on the 6:50 train to spend their honeymoon in New York.

Not until the train was well under way, towards the North, did anyone in the city, save the few friends who witnessed the ceremony, know that the young couple were married. Members of their families were notified by letter directly after the departure and telegrams of congratulation and jocular rebuke caught the romantic couple before they reached Goldsboro. The announcement of the marriage created a genuine surprise when it was heard on the streets after Mr. and Mrs. Cowan had departed.

Mr. Cowan was for several years city editor of the Messenger, of this city, and was on the reportorial staff of the STAR before he was 16 years of age. He is a bright and versatile young writer and gave great promise of a brilliant career in the newspaper world, but forsook the craft a short time ago to engage in the theatrical profession. At present he is a member of the firm of Cowan Brothers, lessees and managers of the Wilmington Academy of Music and the Masonic Opera House at Newbern. He is a son of the late Capt. John Cowan and is well and most favorably known throughout the State. The bride is one of Wilmington's most charming and attractive young ladies, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm E. Mayo, and is much loved and admired in a wide circle of friends in Wilmington and elsewhere. The young people have the very best wishes of a host of friends. They will return from New York July 2d and expect to reside during the Summer at Wrightsville Beach.

MUST BE SOBER AND ORDERLY.

Queer Condition Upon Which Fayetteville Excursion Tickets Were Sold.

Some queer conditions have perhaps been imposed by transportation companies upon persons to whom they have sold tickets for passage, but a ticket which fell into the hands of the police from the person of a drunken negro excursionist from Fayetteville yesterday is quite novel in passenger traffic. The ticket reads as follows:

"Perry's Big Fish Excursion
—From—
Fayetteville to Wilmington, and Return
If Sober and Orderly.
Good only on this date and train,
June 23rd."

The excursionist has no doubt invalidated his ticket already, for he was too drunk to give his name when picked up in The Orton alley by Policeman J. J. Johnson.

Carolina Yacht Club Opening.

Members of the Carolina Yacht Club and their lady friends are looking forward with great pleasure to the formal opening of their handsome club house on Wrightsville Beach tonight. The features will be a delightful seashore ball and a spread of elegant refreshments by Mrs. W. H. Northrop. The club house will be gaily decorated with flags and emblems and will present a gorgeous scene.

Gun Club Prize Shoot.

The Wilmington Gun Club will hold its regular weekly shoot this afternoon and all members are requeste to attend. Take the 3:30 P. M. instead of the 4 o'clock car as previously. Seats have been provided for spectators and all are cordially invited. The lodge is now a regular station for the cars on Friday. The $10 gold prize will be won at the shoot this afternoon.

NEGRO CHURCH DIFFICULTY.

Airing in Justice Fowler's Court Yesterday—Indictments and Counter-Indictments Complicated Matters.

The feud among members of the colored congregation at Baymead, in this county, seven miles from Wilmington, was fully aired in Justice Fowler's court yesterday, Mr. Marsden Bellamy having appeared for the minority faction of the flock, which was led by Hezekiah Miller, a teacher in the Sunday school of the congregation. The majority faction was headed by the pastor of the church, Rev. W. B. Williams, and a large number of colored dignitaries were present.

The chief defendant was Hezekiah Miller and he was charged with forcible trespass and sued upon a peace warrant. The evidence disclosed that one of the colored "sisters" was on trial by the Mt. Arrarat Methodist church council, which was presided over by Rev. J. G. Lewis, a well educated colored preacher from a neighboring circuit. Hezekiah and his colleague had been excluded from the hearing. The doors were closed and marshals were on duty to see that no one entered. Hezekiah went to a window and while hearing the proceedings clandestinely from that point of vantage, he caught a remark which he construed as a reflection upon his sister, who was being tried. He exclaimed a threat through the window and ran around to the door' smashing the same in and encountering the pickets. The confusion broke up the church trial. Hezekiah was discharged from the peace warrant, the threat having been conditional, and the charge of forcible trespass was changed to an assault. He was fined $10 and costs, the whole amounting to something over $16.

Indictments and counter indictments growing out of an affray between Ida Wallace and Amanda Russ upon the same occasion were heard and judgment was suspended in view of strong provocation on the part of one and a defensive attitude by the other.

Joseph Miller, arraigned on a peace warrant sued out by Harris Ballard, was discharged and the prosecutor was taxed with the costs.

Elsie Miller, an old colored woman, 73 years of age, indicted by her son-in-law, Harris Ballard, for trespass in visiting the latter's house to attend the funeral of her granddaughter, was also dismissed.

WILMINGTON DEFEATS CHARLOTTE.

Interesting Game Yesterday Afternoon at Hilton—Caswell Date Cancelled.

Wilmington closed the door upon the heels of Charlotte in the baseball game at Hilton yesterday afternoon, the score having been seven to nothing. A double-header was not played owing to a misunderstanding as to the lease of the grounds. Sellers and Zellers composed the battery for the locals, the pitching of the first named having been one of the prime features of the game. He struck out 17 men and fielded his position exceptionally well. The stick work and base throwing of Zellers was also a feature. He lined out three triples, one of them with three men on bases, and a two base hit.

Manager Allen is disappointed that the game with Fort Caswell has to be cancelled. The soldier boys find it impossible to get leave of absence to-day on account of important duty at the post.

Mr. Parker's Assets.

Mr. L. V. Grady, trustee for Mr. N. F. Parker, yesterday completed the stock-taking of the business and issues a statement showing resources amounting to $8,926 18 and liabilities of only $4,294 33, leaving a net balance of $4,631.85. The insurance on stock and fixtures is $5,950, all policies being paid, the first expiring Oct. 1st. The statement of resources is as follows: Cash on hand, $27.65; in bank, $31.89; accounts and mortgages on ledger, $1,118.06; stock in store, $6,847.66; in warehouse, $394 52; office and store furniture, horse, wagon and harness, $806.50. The liabilities on notes and accounts due and not due, $4,294.83.

Called Meeting of Aldermen.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen will probably be held Monday night to consider applications for the retail of liquor for the six months ensuing July 1st. Present licenses of dealers expire at that time and as the first regular meeting will not be held until Monday night, July 4th, it was absolutely necessary to have a special session before the expiration of present licenses.

Improving Old Residence.

The handsome old Peschau residence at northeast corner of Fifth and Grace streets will be remodelled within the next few weeks. The family is now occupying the Dunn residence on Princess street while the improvements are under way. The lot upon which the dwelling is situated will be filled in and the property otherwise improved.

Looking After Maritime Interests.

The U. S. Light House schooner "Pharos" is at Bald Head doing some work on the new light. The U. S. buoy tender "Wistaria" arrived up yesterday afternoon on one of her regular trips, looking after the harbor and river buoys and lights.

Six Thousand Democrats Toil Live-Long Night Over Nomination at Greensboro.

DAWN FINDS THEM THERE.

Glenn in the Lead, With All Forces Practically Intact Except Little Coquetry With Minority Candidates—The Organization, Etc.

[Special Star Telegram.]

Greensboro, N. C., June 24 (3:30 A. M.)—Permanent organization having been effected, nominating speeches having been made and the order of business recommended by the State Committee having been discarded at afternoon sessions of the Democratic State Convention here to-day, the balloting for candidates for Governor was begun at 9:30 at night amid the wildest enthusiasm and confusion, the convention hall being packed with six thousand delegates and interested spectators. As was conceded by the Stedman calculators the Winston man led on the first ballot, the figures of that and subsequent roll calls having resulted as follows:

First Ballot—Glenn, 552.99; Stedman, 419.92; Turner, 118.59; Davidson, 158.47.

Second Ballot—Stedman, 419.62½; Glenn, 566.59½; Davidson, 142.11; Turner 121.31; Doughton, 03. That showed a gain for Glenn of 13.60, for Stedman a loss of 29, for Davidson of 16.36, and a gain for Turner of 2.72. Glenn lacks 58 and a fraction of the nomination.

At the conclusion of the second ballot a member of the convention named Stevens attempted to speak. His voice was drowned in the roar of voices shouting for Glenn and Stedman. He gesticulated wildly. His arms flew like flails. A shower of paper wads rained upon him from amused bystanders and men gathered about him urging him to proceed. Efforts on the part of some to get Mr. Stevens to desist were useless. Finally Chairman Doughton quietly led him from the platform and he disappeared. At this point many of the delegates began clamoring for adjournment.

At 3:30 o'clock the convention refused to adjourn by an overwhelming vote. The Stedman men voted wildly in favor of adjournment. The third ballot is now in progress. The Glenn men are jubilant; the Stedman men determined. The Stedman men will stand by him to the end and are hopeful of gaining enough recruits from Turner and Davidson to nominate.

At 3:45 the third ballot was completed, showing Glenn, 590.66; Stedman, 448.97; Davidson, 91.56; Turner, 118.75. That is a gain of 24.06½ for Glenn; 29.35 for Stedman; a loss of 50.55 for Davidson and a loss of five and a fraction by Turner.

The fourth ballot is half completed at 4:45 o'clock this morning and it is stated by those who are watching the count that Glenn is steadily gaining.

The fifth ballot was completed shortly after 5 o'clock this morning and showed: Glenn, 607.46; Stedman, 457.65; Turner, 71.90; Davidson, 112.95.

Opening of the Convention.

Greensboro, N. C., June 23.—The greatest convention of North Carolina Democrats ever held assembled in the Banner Warehouse, in this city, shortly after noon to-day for the purpose of adopting a platform, nominating a full State ticket, electing delegates to the National Convention and transacting other business.

A number of prominent men occupied seats upon the platform, including the two senators, several representatives in Congress, a number of State officers and many well known North Carolinians.

It was exactly 12:18 when Senator F. M. Simmons, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, rapped to order the convention. The session was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Henry W. Battle, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, who invoked the blessings of God upon the convention and its deliberations.

Chairman Simmons requested Walter L. Cohoon, editor of the Tar Heel, Elizabeth City, to act as assistant secretary. The roll of counties was called by T. J. Murphy, of this city, at the request of the secretary, A. J. Field, of Raleigh. All of the ninety-seven counties were found to be represented.

No Humor For Speeches.

Senator Simmons arose to make his address and spoke for ten minutes, but could not make himself heard, owing to the continual noise made by the vast crowd, and he introduced Congressman John H. Small as temporary chairman, saying that his speech would be printed in the newspapers; that Small had a better speech than he, though he did not have the lungs of a jackass, and he hoped the convention would give him an attentive hearing.

Congressman Small began his speech, but the noise and jabbering did not seem to cease and he could not be heard very far from the front of the rostrum. He continued, however, and made a strong Democratic speech. Hon. James R. Young moved the adoption of the recommendations of the executive committee as to the order of business of the convention:

1. Permanent organization.
2. Adoption of resolutions and platform.
3. Election of delegates to national convention.
4. Nomination of candidates.

E. F. Aydlett, of Pasquotank, moved as an amendment that the nomination of candidates be taken up as the second matter of business. On motion of Louis M. Bourne, of Buncombe, the roll of counties was called on the amendment with the following result, the Glenn contingent appearing to lead in favoring the amendment: Ayes, 805½; Nays, 441½. This means that immediately after the permanent organization is effected the convention will proceed to the nomination of candidates.

The ten congressional districts sent up the names of the vice presidents, members of the committees on platform, permanent organization and credentials. The State Executive Committee was as follows:

First district—W. G. Lamb, Williamston; W. B. Rodman, Washington; W. E. Cross, Statesville; H. T. Greenleaf, Elizabeth City.

Second—E. L. Travis, Halifax; F. A. Woodward, Wilson; J. H. Exum, Jr., Edgecombe; J. P. Macon, Warren.

Third—S. O. Middleton, Duplin; James A. Bryan, Craven; W. S. Chadwick, Carteret; H. A. Grady, Sampson.

Fourth—James R. Young, Wake; R. H. Hays, Ed. S. Abell, Johnston; John C. Drewry, Wake.

Fifth—John J. Nelson, Guilford; B. S. Royster, Granville; J. S. Manning, Durham; R. D. Reid, Rockingham.

Sixth—W. H. Bernard, New Hanover; J. B. Underwood, Cumberland; O. L. Clark, Bladen; George H. Bellamy, Brunswick.

Seventh—J. R. Blair, Montgomery; T. B. Bailey, Davie; S. W. Finch, D. E. McIver, Moore.

Eighth—R. A. Crowell, Stanley; R. N. Hackett, Wilkes; L. E. Hellig, Rowan; J. R. Lewellyn, Surry.

Ninth—R. R. Ray, W. H. Williams, Heriot Clarkson, Mecklenburg; T. N. James.

The Afternoon Session.

Greensboro, N. C., June 23.—At the afternoon session Governor Aycock made a speech which was the event of the day, barring a nomination for Governor which does not now seem likely. E. F. Aydlett, of Pasquotank, read the report of the committee on permanent organization, which recommended R. A. Doughton, Alleghany, to be permanent chairman; vice presidents to be those nominated by the various districts; secretary, Alex. J. Field; assistant, E. E. Britton, of Wake, and Geo. P. Pell, of Forsyth; reading clerks, W. L. Cohoon and W. W. Wilson.

Congressman Small appointed S. O. Williams, of Davidson, and John W. Thompson, of Wake, as a committee to escort Mr. Doughton to the chair, and in accepting the championship he made a brief but happy speech. It was announced that the committee on credentials was not ready to report.

A motion of S. B. Alexander, Jr., of Mecklenburg, prevailed, that while waiting for the report of the committee on credentials, the nominating speeches be made with the understanding that no vote be taken until after the credentials committee made its report. The nominations were made according to previous announcement, V. S. Bryant nominating Stedman; J. C. Buxton, Glenn; Locke Craig, Davidson; W. A. Self, Turner.

Seconding speeches were made by Col. James T. Morehead, for Stedman, E. T. Cansler, for Glenn, and R. B. White, for Turner.

After the seconding speeches were concluded, the convention took a recess until 9 o'clock to-night at which hour the balloting commenced.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 24.

THE NEGRO PARTY.

Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson, of Goldsboro, has been the North Carolina member of the National Republican Committee for the past four years. Just as was expected, however, he was defeated for re-election at the national convention at Chicago this week. The delegates elected to do the bidding of the scandalous convention of the Republican party in North Carolina went to Chicago to compass Judge Robinson's defeat, and he was accordingly kicked overboard.

The principal reason that Judge Robinson was kicked out was because he refused to sit at a banquet in Washington and stick his legs under the same table with a negro. This was on the occasion of the meeting of the National Committee in Washington some weeks ago. The banquet was given in honor of the committeemen, but when Judge Robinson saw Judson Lyons, the Georgia negro register of the treasury, sitting at the table "big as Cuffee," he withdrew, saying that he was a Republican, but still a Southern gentleman and would not eat with a negro. He had no apology to make for this act, and it is said that it gave great offence to President Roosevelt. A basket was forthwith prepared for Judge Robinson's head, and because he would not recognize the social equality of the negro as well as his political equality, he was given the grand bounce at Chicago. The North Carolina delegation to Chicago did not stand by Judge Robinson, and thus they turn down a white man because he refused to eat with a negro. The party in North Carolina, therefore, cannot declare again that it is not the negro party and does not stand for social equality of the races.

Another offence which Judge Robinson committed was when the recent Republican State convention at Greensboro adopted a plank in its platform denouncing Gov. Chas. B. Aycock, the chosen Democratic Governor of North Carolina, and who has been the faithful Governor of all the people, Judge Robinson protested against such a slander and said:

"I know the Governor to be a clever, true and honest man. I don't want to see the Governor whom I know and whom I would not be afraid to trust in any capacity, denounced as a corrupt and bad man. If I were to die to-morrow I would make him my executor."

For political reasons the infamous convention refused to listen to a man with principles like Judge Robinson. He wanted to fight the campaign on principle and not calumny, and because he took that stand, he was despised and was marked for slaughter. He also gave offence because he protested against the platform assault on the Watt's Law.

The act of the convention in discarding Judge Robinson, emphasizes two things: First, That the Republican party is for the negro's social and political equality with the white man. Second, That the Republican party proscribes a man for his convictions, and spews out all who are not servile and partisan enough to approve of the infamous and dirty work of the party. However, the people of North Carolina will respect Judge Robinson as a Republican and a gentleman.

REVOLTTIONARY AND DANGEROUS.

The Republican platform adopted at Chicago contains a plank favoring a reduction of the representation from Southern States which restrict suffrage.

In spite of the decision of the United States Supreme Court holding that our suffrage amendments are constitutional, the partisan and sectional Republican party has renewed its assault on civilization in the South. If the Republicans elect a majority in Congress favorable to legislation in accordance with the plank referred to and any act is passed embodying that policy, the United States Supreme Court will await the abortion with a big axe. We might add also that any act which Congress adopts in carrying out the policy proposed in the Chicago platform will be bound to also affect several Northern States which restrict suffrage in a different way from the restrictive constitutional amendments in several Southern States.

The Chicago platform, the dispatches say, "has been the subject of administrative scrutiny and national interest for many weeks," and that means that the platform is Rooseveltism deliberately emphasized. The triumph of Roosevelt, therefore, means another four years of sectional bitterness in Congress, and a wiping out of "the era of good feeling," for it will be a revolutionary and high-handed movement to overturn the constitutions of sovereign States.

The Russians ought to send to Colorado for Gen. Sherman Bell, if they want to find out how to railroad the Japanese out of Manchuria.

CRANK AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

A few days ago a man hung around the White House and wanted to clean up things because he wouldn't be allowed to see President Roosevelt. He wanted to demand a pension for service during the civil war.

The man was arrested, and although he had no gun and was going it on his muscle the officials had no doubt he was crazy. The circumstantial evidence was strong that the poor fellow had a tangled skein in his cerebellum, and the Washington Post points it out this way:

"There should be no hesitancy about locking up a man who goes to the White House to demand a pension, when all he has to do is to call on Mr. Ware and prove his residence in New York, Indiana or Illinois."

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT

The Louisiana delegation chosen by the State convention on Monday was instructed to vote for Judge Parker as long as there is any chance of his nomination. The Texas convention sent out a strong delegation, instructed to act as a unit and vote for Mr. Parker.

The New York "Times" now gives Parker 401 votes, with six States yet to hear from. Our New York contemporary expresses the firm conviction that Parker will be nominated by the St. Louis Convention which meets next Wednesday week. The "Times" is confident that his nomination will come on the third ballot, but will not be surprised to see Parker sweep the convention on the first ballot.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— James J. Hill says Senator Spooner is one of the cleanest men in national politics. If he is not now, Governor La Follette will make an effort to clean him up properly in the November fight in Wisconsin.—Washington Post.

—— More than 5,000 employes of railroads in Pennsylvania have received notice that they will be laid off on June 30th, and will have nothing to do this summer but enjoy the high prices of living commended by Secretary Shaw.—Washington Post.

—— While the Japanese have been hammering the Russian army and the Russian navy, Mr. Rockefeller has quietly corked up Russian competition to the Standard Oil Company. The "Novoe Vremya" is authority for the statement that the Russian combinations have capitulated to the foster-mother of the University of Chicago, and that the whole output of the Baku wells is now in American hands. Peace hath her victories no less renowned than war.—New York World.

—— Judge Alton B. Parker evidently belongs to that high class of statesmen, rare in these days, that believe that the high office of President of the greatest nation on earth is a position neither to be sought nor to be avoided. Because he has not gone out with a brass band and a few barrels of money in search of that high station, blowing hot and saying things to be caught out on, a pack is on his track hoping to flush him.—Macon Telegraph.

Baby Costs Too Much

When the price paid is the mother's health and happiness. The father doesn't realize as he romps with the child what years of wifely suffering must be set against the baby's laughter.

Chronic invalidism is a high price to pay for the painful joy of maternity, yet it is at such a cost that many a woman becomes a mother. Such a price is too much because it is more than nature asks.

By the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription maternity is made practically painless, and a quick convalescence is assured in almost every case.

$500 Reward for Women Who Cannot be Cured.

The proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"There are thousands of sick women dragging out a weary, miserable existence, who would be well and happy did they but have my experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. Annie Lenman, Lady Commander Star of Bethlehem, Lodge No. 27, of 108 Jackson Street, Atlanta, Ga. "Four years ago I was nearly dead with inflammation and ulceration. I endured daily untold agony, and life was a burden to me. I had used medicines internally and externally until I had made up my mind that there was no relief in sight for me. A friend of mine endorsed your 'Favorite Prescription,' and I determined then to give it a trial. It took patience and perseverance for I was in a bad condition, and had to use your medicine for nearly four months before I was cured, but what a change it brought; from despair to happiness, from misery to the delightful, exhilarating feeling that only health brings. I would not change back for a thousand dollars. Your 'Prescription' is a grand medicine. I wish every sick woman would only try it and be convinced."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss; therefore, accept no substitute.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, June 23.—The cotton market opened weak at a decline of seven to eleven points under liquidation by yesterday's buyers and a renewal of bear pressure, following lower cables than expected and continued favorable weather accounts. After some further decline there was a slight rally on room covering, but the market soon weakened again and in the early afternoon showed a net loss of from twenty-two to thirty-five points, with August showing the greatest decline under selling by a local spot house and the South. There seemed to be very little demand even at the decline, but toward the close there was a rally of several points on covering and prices were finally quiet at a net decline of twelve and twenty-four points. Sales were estimated at 300,000 bales, representing a comparatively quiet day. The news as a rule had a bearish effect, indicating unsatisfactory trade conditions and very favorable crop progress with some reports stating that the movement of cotton from remote interior points was showing some increase. Rains were reported on the early map in sections which have been supposed to need them and more moisture is forecasted for to-morrow in Alabama and Mississippi. The only feature at all unfavorable from a crop growing standpoint was the prediction for lower temperatures, which, however, are believed only to be temporary and do nothing more than check development in some sections. The arrival of about 530 bales of cotton from Liverpool on yesterday's steamer excited some attention and considerable curiosity. Last season, it may be recalled, considerable cotton was brought here from abroad for delivery on contract during the end of the season corners. The present receipts are said to be of high grade American cotton, such is in very little demand abroad, but which commands somewhat of a premium in the local market.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Cotton was quoted quiet at 10.95c, net receipts 430 bales; gross receipts 2,169 bales; stock 63,081 bales.

— Durham Herald: It is not to the interest of the Republican party to have a white man's party in the South and for this reason it will have little to feed on.

— Durham Herald: If finding out how a man stands on the temperance question before voting for him is not pushing the thing into politics we do not know what you can call it.

— At Salisbury on Wednesday, Dunk Arthur, colored, was bound over to court on the charge of murder. He is charged with wrecking a train and causing the death of the fireman. It is said, however, that the evidence is not very strong.

—Our sister town of Winterville is booming. There are many new brick stores, a large brickyard, a huge factory soon to be erected, a cotton seed oil mill in view, numerous private residences in course of structure and the people all smiles and sunshine.—Greenville Reflector.

— Ed. Beattie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Beattie, of Charlotte, was drowned Wednesday afternoon at Norfolk, Va. He was formerly a messenger in the Western Union Telegraph Company's office at Charlotte and was a bright youth. His body has not been recovered.

— Raleigh Post: It is now said that ex-Assistant Attorney General Tyner is going to sue President Roosevelt for $100,000 damages for defamation of character. It would add to the gaiety of the campaign to have a candidate for the high office of President running with a libel suit chasing along behind him.

— In the Charlotte Observer of Thursday, W. F. Beasley, lately lieutenant colonel of the 71st N. C. Regiment, publishes a long communication in which he claims that Justice Walter Clark, of the North Carolina Supreme Court, "betrayed his trust and perverted history" in falsely claiming that he (Clark) was colonel of the 71st Regiment during the civil war. Col. Beasley writes from Plymouth, N. C.

— Mr. Stanford H. Pickett, of Durham county, who went on an excursion to Norfolk on Tuesday, was killed by falling from a third story window of the hotel where he was stopping. Mr. Pickett was one of Durham county's substantial citizens. He lived about six miles from Durham, and owned the Pickett grist mill. He was also a well-to-do farmer. He had a wife and nine children, and was about 49 years of age.

— At Concord on Wednesday morning at the Southern depot, when the local from the north arrived, a stray negro who had been stealing a ride, was appealed to by some of the train hands for assistance in handling freight. A dispute followed, and the train hands set upon the tramp at once, and just as they were about to catch him the man turned with a pistol and fired on both his pursuers, but failed to hit them. They still pursued the tramp, and, turning, he fired again and still missed his aim. Finally, throwing his pistol in the face of one of his pursuers, he got away.

— Mr. B. P. Summerlin, the popular carrier of R. F. D. Route No. 2, and Miss Maggie Kelly, of Duplin county, were married last Sunday evening, Rev. B. F. DeLoatch performing the ceremony. It was a run-away marriage, and the couple experienced considerable trouble before they were happily joined together. A license was secured in Duplin county, after which the ceremony was performed in Mount Olive. A little later they learned that the marriage would not be legal by reason of the fact that the license was secured in Duplin county and the ceremony performed in Wayne county. They then went back to Duplin county and were married the second time.—Mount Olive Tribune.

The Beverage of Health

Schlitz

Pure beer—Schlitz beer—is the best drink in the world for you.

The malt is a food; the hops a tonic. The alcohol—only 3½ per cent—is an aid to digestion; a healthful stimulant.

The most healthy nations in the world—the most hardy, most energetic—drink the most of it.

But the beer must be pure. Impurity means harmful germs. That is why we brew Schlitz in absolute cleanliness—why we filter even the air that touches it and sterilize every bottle.

And the beer must be aged. Green beer causes biliousness. That's why we age Schlitz for months before we market it.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, of Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years, and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by R. R. HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

The Morning Star

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY MORNING JUNE 24.

CORONER'S INQUEST INTO THE SLOCUM DISASTER.

Much of the Testimony Offered Had to Do With Condition of Life-Preservers. Adjournment Until Monday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 23.—When the Slocum inquest was resumed to-day Policeman James Collins said he was at College Point and One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street, when he saw the Slocum coming up the river all afire forward. He notified the fire department and with another policeman he got a yawl and rowed over to North Brother Island, where the Slocum was then beached. They made three trips and took fifty burning women and children from the paddle-boxes and picked up sixteen dead bodies. He saw many life-preservers floating and a lot of cork floating, but none of the persons picked up wore life-preservers. As Herbert C. Ferrall, the policeman who was with Collins took the stand to corroborate Collins' story, Captain Van Schaick was brought in on a stretcher. It was decided, however, not to call Captain Van Schaick to-day and he was taken back to the hospital.

The Slocum could have beached at the foot of 131st street and from three to five minutes saved, according to the testimony of John VanGilder, superintendent of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company. He contended that 131st street could have been reached by slightly changing the course, the flood tide would have helped, and the wind would have carried the flames outward instead of inward. The reputation of Captain VanSchaick as a commander was declared by the witness to be first class. He had no doubt the captain had done what he thought best under the circumstances.

Captain Edward VanWart, senior pilot of the Slocum, said two hundred and fifty new life-preservers were purchased for the Slocum in 1895. He was not sure whether they were examined at the beginning of the present season. He did not examine the fire hose, but did examine the lifeboats, and found them in good condition. He had not given the signal for the fire drill this season.

Reuben H. Tudor, who assisted in the work of rescue, said four or five of the corpses he picked up had on life-preservers. One of the preservers, he said, was full of powdered cork and was so rotten that he pulled it to pieces with his finger-nails.

Much of the testimony offered at the afternoon session had to do with the condition of the life-preservers. Almost without exception the stories of the witnesses were to the effect that they were of little value.

Many instances were given where the straps attached to the life belts broke easily when subjected to strain, and where the canvas covering was torn and the filling of granulated cork released. Numerous witnesses testified that quantities of the granulated cork was seen floating on the surface of the water in the vicinity of the burning steamer while the work of rescue was going on.

In asking an adjournment until Monday, Mr. Garvan said he hoped to complete his case during that day, and may do so in time for the jury to take it during the afternoon. Coroner Berry granted the request, and then adjourned until Monday.

With the approval of the district attorney, the members of the crew who were held at the house of detention were released from custody.

The bodies of fifty-one unidentified victims of the General Slocum disaster were buried to-day in the Lutheran cemetery, Long Island. The bodies of fifty identified victims were also interred.

The hull of the wrecked Slocum was raised to-day and a great deal of water was pumped out of the hold. A search was made for bodies, but none was recovered. At the next full tide the hulk will be taken further in shore. A thorough exploration of the wreckage has not yet been made. It is possible that to-morrow bodies will be found in the entanglement of timbers and machinery. Supervising Inspector Rodie of the United States steamboat inspection service, picked up a number of life-preservers on the main deck of the Slocum and tagged them for use in the government investigation. These preservers were badly torn and more than half filled with powdered cork.

More Bodies Recovered.

Twenty-four additional bodies were recovered to-day, bringing the total number of known dead up to 967. One hundred policemen who have been making a canvass of all the districts where persons were reported missing, completed their work to-night. Inspector Schmittberger, who was in charge of the canvass, estimated the total dead, including the missing, at about 1,000. He said that the police in many instances found at their homes persons who have been officially missing since the day the steamer was burned. In one case, a man, his wife, and two children, whose names had appeared in all the published lists of missing, were found at their home. They had not been on the excursion at all, and the elders were not even aware that they had been reported missing. Others among the missing were found at hospitals and at various other places.

EXPECTATIONS OF A GREAT BATTLE.

Japanese Armies Moving to Attack Kai-Chou or Taichi-Kiao from Two Sides.

RUSSIAN ARMY AT KAI-CHOU.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 23, 1:10 P. M.—The expectation of a great battle has been intensified by General Kuropatkin's speech to General Stakelberg's corps on Monday at Kai-Chou, when the commander-in-chief said he would see the troops again soon; that they must settle the Japanese promptly, and that they were not going home until this had been done. The general is understood to have meant that he would return from Liao Yang with a large force and give battle. It is pointed out that he can afford to leave a comparatively small garrison at Liao-Yang in view of the absence of any direct advance from Feng Wang Cheng and the concentration of the Japanese forces south. In the opinion of many conservative military men, Kuropatkin's massing of troops at Kai-Chou does not necessarily indicate his intention to give battle, but merely to check the Japanese advance and defer the occupation of New Chang, the possession of which would be of great advantage to the Japanese during the rainy season, affording the enemy housing accommodation and enabling them to land supplies and harass the Russians. The occupation of Siung Yo Shan by a Japanese detachment indicates that the connection between the enemy's armies is practically assured, as Sung Yo Shan is half way between General Oku's and General Kuroki's positions at Senuchen and Siu-Yen respectively. In the opinion of the staff the Sung-Yo-Shan detachment is an outpost of the Siu-Yen army or of another force, recently landed at Ching-Tai-Tsze. The roads from Siu-Yen and Ching-Tai-Tsze pass Sung-Yo-Shan, whence they proceed respectively to Senuchen and Kai-Shou. The information of the War Office accounts for the position of the twelve Japanese divisions. The whereabouts of two others is unknown.

These are the 6th and, 7th, which probably were the last to arrive, as they came from Hakodate. One or both may have just landed, furnishing a link between the armies of Kuroki and Oku.

According to the latest reports Oku's main army is still south of Senuchen.

Reconnoissance at Port Arthur.

CHICAGO, June 23.—A special to the "Daily News" from Che Foo says:

Reconnoissance in force of the approaches to Port Arthur was made yesterday by a Japanese flotilla of three destroyers and four torpedo boats, which ran in from the east about noon and cruised along the whole bluff, coming out past Lao Tieshan promonotory. As the flotilla steamed along it was heavily engaged with the forts, but apparently suffered no damage, although a signal-mast of one of the torpedo boats was knocked out of shape as if struck by a shell. The operation was backed at some distance by two cruisers, one of which appeared to be the Yakuma, while an auxiliary cruiser, an old San Francisco liner, the Nippon, or a sister, ship, acted as sea scout in the rear. Shortly afterward heavy firing began on the land side, lasting intermittently until dusk.

CHE FOO, June 23, 2:30 P. M.—It is reported here that the Japanese made a determined attack upon Port Arthur from land and sea yesterday, June 22d, and also during the night. Two steamers just arrived passed Port Arthur at 1 o'clock this morning, some distance off shore, and the captains, both reliable men, say they did not hear any firing at that hour.

Japanese Movements.

LIAO YENG, Wednesday, June 22, (delayed in transmission)—According to reports received at the Russian headquarters, the Japanese intend to attack either Kai-Chou or Ta-Yche-Kiao from two sides. Their armies continue to advance from the south and west. The leading detachments of General Oku's army have occupied Senuchen and Japanese scouts have appeared in the vicinity of Kai-Chou. Constant skirmishing is in progress between them and the Cossacks who are observing the movements of the enemy. General Kuroki's army has appeared on the road leading westward from Siou-Yen and in the neighboring valleys. The success of the Japanese plan would mean that Corea will lose its value as base, New Chwang then being available for this purpose. The movements of the Japanese troops are facilitated by the cessation of the rains, and hot weather having set in which has dried the roads.

Another Cossack detachment has fallen into an ambush of Japanese infantry, losing a number of men wounded.

An Affair of Outposts.

GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS, In the Field, via Fusan, Corea, June 23.—Russians from Samimak attacked the Japanese outposts in force yesterday, apparently for the purpose of testing their strength. The Russian force consisted of two regiments of cavalry, one of infantry and one battery of artillery. The enemy were defeated and retired toward Shinsailing; they are supposed to have sustained considerable loss. On the Japanese side Major Kubota was killed and nine men were wounded.

A party of foreign military attachees which was on a visit to the outposts probably witnessed the fighting.

Marquis Oyama.

TOKIO, June 23, 11 A. M.—The Marquis Oyama, formerly marshal and chief of the general staff, has been appointed to the supreme command of the imperial armies in the field. His chief of staff will be Lieutenant General Kodama, late chief of the general staff. Their positions vacated on the general staff in this city will be filled by Field Marshal Yamagata and Major General Nagaoka.

PERDICARIS AND VARLEY.

Minister Gummere Expected Their Release by Raisuli Yesterday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Consul General Gummere cables the State Department under last night's date from Tangier that Shiek Valal has consented to have Perdicaris and Varley and the ransom exchanged within his territory, provided the Moorish government will enter into a written obligation that he and his people shall not hereafter suffer the consequences. The necessary pledge has been authorized by the foreign minister and Minister Gummere expects that the prisoners will be released to-day.

OUTRAGEOUS AFFAIR AT PORT-AU-PRINCE, HAYTI.

The French and German Ministers Attacked and Stoned by Soldiers Forming the Palace Guard.

By Cable to the Morning Star

PARIS, June 33.—The Foreign Office has received a dispatch from M. Deprez, the French minister at Port-au-Prince, Hayti, saying that while he and the German minister were driving past the palace yesterday they were attacked and stoned by soldiers forming the palace guard. M. DePrez was struck on the leg by a stone and was slightly injured. The ministers' wives, who were in another carriage, following, also were pelted. The wife of the French minister is an American.

As Foreign Minister DelCasse has only just received the dispatch he has not yet determined what steps shall be taken, but the officials consider it certain that France will make an energetic demand for redress. One French warship is near the scene and another is at the French naval headquarters in the West Indies. It is expected that Germany will make a similar demand for redress.

PORT-AU PRINCE, June 23.—The attack on the French minister here, M. DePrez, who was struck by a stone yesterday, thrown by one of the guards on duty at the palace, was the outcome of the feeling among the population and the government against foreigners, the natives desiring to hold them responsible for the wretched financial situation of Hayti, the proceedings against the French and German officials of the National bank charged with participation in the issue of $200,000 fraudulent securities early in 1903 having not been ended. Some of the officials are still in prison and others have sought safety in flight. Persons prominently connected with the National bank have been protesting against the long detention in prison of the officials who are under charges.

The statement that France will demand redress for the attack on her minister is confirmed here.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Confirmation of the reported attack on the French and German ministers in Hayti came to the State Department to-day in the shape of the following cablegram from Minister Powell at Port-au-Prince, dated June 22:

"French and German ministers with their ladies, while passing the palace in their carriages yesterday, were stoned by the palace guard. French minister slightly injured. Apology demanded but none given. Both have cabled their governments."

The most serious feature of the affair is that the attack was made not by an irresponsible mob, but by the palace guard, which directly connects the Haytian government with the occurrence. More than a month ago the State Department was forewarned of this approaching trouble by its agents in Hayti and have been watching the little republic closely, keeping a naval force near at hand. The Detroit, which went from Dominican waters to participate in the Nova Scotia celebration will return to San Domingo, as it is proposed by the Navy Department to keep three vessels in close proximity to Hayti and San Domingo.

SCHOONER BURNED.

Unknown Two-Master Reported on Fire June 10th Off Currituck, N. C.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The fruit steamer Agnes, which arrived to-day from Baracoa, reports that in latitude 36 32, longitude 74.03, June 10, on the outward voyage, she sighted a vessel on fire. On bearing down to the craft she found it to be a two-masted schooner. There was no sign of life on board. A lantern was burning on the fore part of the vessel and a bright light was suspended aloft on the mainmast. After standing by for twenty minutes without seeing any person on board the burning craft, the Agnes proceeded without learning the name of the schooner.

Several days ago a quantity of burned wreckage, cabin furniture, several 5-gallon cases of oil and a passenger check of the Ocean Steamship Company, of Savannah, Ga., No. 7,567, washed ashore between False Cape and Currituck life-saving stations, North Carolina. This wreckage probably was washed ashore from the burned schooner reported by the Agnes, as the position given is off the coast of North Carolina.

DANIEL J. SULLY.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 23.—When the examination of Daniel J. Sully of the suspended firm of D. J. Sully & Company in bankruptcy proceedings was continued to-day it was brought out that he gave a mortgage of $82,000 on the house at No. 6 East 62nd street, the property which he refuses to turn over to the receivers on the ground that it belongs to his wife. He said in a previous examination that he gave it to her as a Christmas present.

It was also learned that he paid the insurance premiums, but that Mrs. Sully controlled the household expenses. An automobile he bought in London for $5,500 he said he had given to his daughters. A bill of $6,800 for furs was for his wife and daughters. The hearing was adjourned to July 11th.

TURKEY AND THE POWERS.

The Porte Yields to Demands for Redress for American Outrages.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PARIS, June 23.—The Foreign Office has been advised that the Porte has yielded completely to the demands of the powers for redress as a result of the Armenian outrages. Evicted Armenians will be returned to their old homes, indemnified for losses, and protected for the future. The Sultan, however, has thus far declined to ratify the Porte's decision. The concessions followed a definite intimation that the powers were preparing to make a naval demonstration in Turkish waters.

REPUBLICAN PARTY PROGRAM COMPLETE

Formal Nomination of Roosevelt and Fairbanks for President and Vice President.

CLOSE OF THE CONVENTION.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The swift, sure current of public opinion for the second time in the history of Republican conventions, to-day resulted in the selection of a national ticket without a dissenting voice. Theodore Roosevelt for President and Charles W. Fairbanks for Vice President received every vote in the convention.

Regardless of the fact that the nomination of one had been assured for months and the other for days, the announcement was accompanied by a resounding demonstration which attested the candidate's universal popularity. The cheering was led by figures known throughout the breadth of the land and echoed by a mighty throng of enthusiastic men and radiant women assembled in the Coliseum to witness the crowning feature as well as the close of the national convention that marks the semi centennial of the Republican party in the United States.

No less than 10,000 men and women participated in the ratification of the programme, and the consequent roar of cheering and hand clapping was deafening. The band stationed high among the girders of the hall was drowned by the tumultuous unbounded demonstration. Hats were tossed in the air, State emblems were waved and flags—beautiful tri-colored shimmering silken flags — fluttered from every hand as though stirred by a gale.

When Governor Black of New York made his speech nominating Theodore Roosevelt to succeed himself as President the delegates in the Republican convention proved there is no absence of enthusiasm in the ranks when occasion justifies exhibition of that quality. For twenty-five minutes the great throng told its approbation of the convention's choice for President. The name of Roosevelt came from every throat. The New York delegates paraded the hall shouting at the tops of their voices. Other delegations joined the procession and the well ordered body of half an hour before was a shifting mass, every semblance of organization gone.

While the demonstration was at its height Chairman Cannon stepped to the front of the stage. He held in his hand the banner which was waved in 1860 when Lincoln was nominated, and which has been used in every convention ever since. The flag showed the wear and tear of many similar contests. "Uncle Joe" waved it vigorously and kept time with his body. Soon the whole convention was swaying in exact measure. The chairman was tired and his place was taken by a young man who grasped the flag staff firmly in one hand and with a megaphone led the yelling. He started the call "Roosevelt, Roosevelt, Roosevelt," repeated over and over again, with the system of a college yell. It was taken up by the throng and the cry for Roosevelt rolled over the hall in volume so great and so terrific that the screeching of a hundred steam whistles would have been dwarfed in comparison.

The delegates in their eagerness to exhibit approval of the nomination accepted every signal for renewed cheering. A little colored boy from Georgia and later a pretty white girl, dressed in a dainty frock of white were lifted to the platform and they waved flags with as much vigor as the lusty preceptor.

After the crowd had yelled itself hoarse it permitted the band to participate in the demonstration. The leader chose patriotic music and the familiar words were taken up by the convention and sung with earnestness. The band changed into the rag time and the convention found that cheering was better timed to the music.

There was no pause in the enthusiasm. Several times Speaker Cannon walked out on the projection to the platform extending between rows of press seats and lifted his hands for order. The crowd thought he was leading the applause and paid no attention.

When from sheer exhaustion the throng lessened its tumult, Speaker Cannon found his opportunity. Going to the very edge of the platform he knelt and pounded the floor for order. When he had gained the attention of the convention, he announced that the flag he had been waving was sacred to the party as the national emblem waved when the beloved Lincoln was the choice of the first Republican convention. His speech caused another outburst in honor of the flag.

Pandemonium broke loose again when Speaker Cannon announced that in the convention there were 994 votes and 994 had been cast for Roosevelt. A great picture of the President was carried about through the hall. It was followed by a banner carried by the Oregon delegation, bearing the words, "First gun, Oregon 22,804. Forty per cent. Republican gain."

When Senator Fairbanks had been nominated for vice president there was no diminution in the demonstration. Voices were hoarse, but the noise for the choice was just as unanimous as in the filling of the first place on the ticket.

NAVAL OFFICER KILLED.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., June 23.—Commander A. G. Kellogg, U. S. N., fell from a four-story window in the Monroe hotel in Portsmouth at 9 o'clock to-night, to the sidewalk below, sustaining injuries from which he died an hour and a half later at the Naval hospital. He had been in bad health for some time. It is thought Commander Kellogg during an attack of vertigo lost his balance and fell from the window at which he was sitting. His wife and married daughter were with him when he died.

Commander Kellogg entered the naval service in 1860, having been appointed from Illinois. He attained the rank of commander in July, 1880, and was retired from active service December 15, 1891. He was born in Ohio.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WSAHINGTON, June 23.—On his return to the executive offices, after he had been informed of his nomination, President Roosevelt greeted cordially a number of newspaper men. He expressed his pleasure at receiving the warm congratulations of those who in the performance of their duties are kept constantly in touch with the President and his work.

Sitting tilted back in a big arm-chair at his desk, the President chatted freely and frankly with those about him. He talked and acted, not as President of the United States, not as the standard bearer of a great political party, but as Theodore Roosevelt, the man and friend. With genial raillery he chatted with one; exchanged comments on men or things with another; laughed heartily at a cartoon of himself to which his attention was drawn in a free hand way in incidents of the convention and recalled some interesting situations, personal and political. Telegrams from all parts of the country poured into the executive offices by the score, each bearing its words of cheer and good wishes.

PAYMASTER WAYLAID.

Robbed of His Horse and Wagon and $2,766 in Money.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KINGSTON, N. Y., June 23.—O. C. Longyear, paymaster of the Hudson River Bluestone Company, was waylaid by three Italians near Stony Hollow to-day and robbed of $2,766. The Italians also stole his horse and wagon, and the horse and wagon of another employe, who was following to protect the paymaster.

Bloodhounds from the Eastern New York Reformatory, at Napanoch, were used to trail two of the bandits. Two Italians were seen at Old Hurley, three miles from the scene of the robbery, and resisted attempts of armed farmers to restrain them. Later, shots were exchanged between the fugitives and a sheriff's posse. More than two hundred deputies were guarding the highways and taking part in the man hunt to-night.

TROLLEY CARS COLLIDE.

A Number of People Injured in an Accident at Lima, O

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LIMA, O., June 23.—A Lima city street car and a western Ohio special suburban car came together here this evening while both were entering a switch. One passenger, an eight-year-old girl named Lorens Kipling or Kippens, of Spokane, Washington, was so seriously injured that she died in a hospital and a dozen others were more or less severely hurt. The suburban car side-swiped the city car, jaming the first half dozen seats of that car together which caused the passengers to suffer broken legs. Many of the passengers were going to or returning from an outing conducted by the Knights of Columbus.
